Unified Bargaining Committee Reaches Tentative Agreement with Asarco

Our Unified Bargaining Committee has reached a tentative agreement on a comprehensive labor contract with Asarco covering over 500 bargaining unit members at the company's Ray and Hayden locations in Arizona, as well as the facility in Amarillo, Texas.

The three-year agreement will be voted on by the membership on May 29, and if approved, will take effect on June 1, 2024.

After many years of fighting, we have achieved fairness and justice for Asarco workers. Our agreement is major a milestone, marking unprecedented, collectively bargained improvements at Asarco.

Our pride in your solidarity, sheer grit and determination cannot be overstated. Our jobs will be safer, pay better and benefits more secure under the proposed new agreement.

Please plan to attend a ratification meeting scheduled for May 29, 2024, where members of the bargaining committee will provide information and answer your questions:

Meeting times: 7:30 a.m., 5 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Meeting Location: Leo Terrill Hall, Kearny, Ariz.
